

November 20, 2020

Dear Logos Family,

We hope this letter finds you well. Logos, thank you for coming along side us in an intentional time of prayer these past 4 weeks. Our desire is to give space for God to step in, take charge and allow His Spirit to minister to us individually and as a collective as we seek for self-reflection, resolve, a heart of openness/love and His direction as we move forward. Let us continue to anticipate and experience the Lord “with us”.

We are inviting you to continue to join to continue praying this coming Wednesday (November 25th) leading up to the special members meeting on November 29th. We will be focusing on a time of fasting and prayer (Individually). A friendly reminder will be sent out in the beginning of next week.

Logos, when we pray, we admit that we are finite and needy, and we cry out to one who is infinite and all-sufficient. We express our helplessness to the one who is ever-present in times of trouble (Psalm 46:1). And then we wait and watch and trust.

Dear Lord God,

Lord, our joy is found in you. You are our salvation and strength. Whatever our circumstances, whatever fears or anxieties we may have, whatever decisions need to be made, you are our salvation and our joy. When things around us seems confusing and frustrating, we pray that you would fill us with incredible hope in your goodness, grace and sovereignty over all things. Help us as a church family to fix our eyes upon you and may you carry us through the days ahead. In Jesus’ Name, Amen.

Brothers and sisters, may we as a church community tap into the power and priority of prayer and be known for prioritizing prayer together. Thank you for your consideration in joining us in prayer. In the meantime, we invite you to continue to access and participate in our worship services and various ministries online. Take care, stay safe, stay healthy and have a blessed weekend.

“May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.”
2 Corinthians 13:14 (NIV)
